

EDWARD WILSON
PRIMARY SCHOOL

Our School Prospectus

‘Strong in will to strive,
to seek, to find and not to yield.’

School motto taken from Lord Tennyson’s poem, Ulysses.

Our pupils are taught strong foundation values which guide them to make informed choices and respect all others.

Our School Values: Communi

curiosity - perseverance - respect - kindness - honesty

We are a friendly and welcoming two form entry primary school, close to the canal in Little Venice. We make learning fun and interesting for all our pupils, supporting them to reach their full potential. We believe that every pupil can achieve great things and we have high aspirations for everyone. Opportunities to develop reading, writing and maths are at the heart of our school curriculum, ensuring that pupils make the best possible progress.

OUR SCHOOL VALUES

Community – We have developed strong links with local businesses, as well as having a thriving and active parent community.

Curiosity – We aim to ignite pupil's curiosity with our rich and varied curriculum, including trips to a range of places such as museums, art galleries and the seaside.

Perseverance – Staff have high aspirations for all pupils and we encourage everyone to never give up!

Respect – We show respect for all cultures and celebrate diversity through our unique cultural evenings.

Kindness – Pupils and staff always demonstrate positive attitudes and pupils are regularly rewarded for acts of kindness.

Honesty – We strive to behave in an honest and trustworthy manner at all times.

EDWARD WILSON
PRIMARY SCHOOL

Edward Wilson Primary School
Senior Street,
London, W2 5TL

T: 020 3214 3930

F: 020 7641 4317

E: office@edwardwilson.org.uk

